

THE PRESIDENT
OF THE
GENERAL ASSEMBLY

16 September 2015

Dear Dr. Stauffacher,

I am writing to extend an invitation for you to attend the Interactive Dialogue on “Building effective, accountable and inclusive institutions to achieve sustainable development”, from 10am-1pm on 27 September 2015, during the United Nations Summit for the adoption of the Post-2015 Development Agenda.

The 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development is an historic and integrated global agenda to eradicate poverty and achieve sustainable development where no one should be left behind. The final 2030 Agenda is the outcome of more than three years of inclusive global consultations with the participation of a multiplicity of stakeholders, including civil society, the private sector, and academia. Your participation in the Summit will help to continue the inclusive nature of this agenda as we start to look towards implementation of the sustainable development goals.

I hope that you will be able to confirm your attendance with Mr. Lliam Findlay (findlay@un.org) from my office at your earliest convenience. He will be available to answer any questions that you might have. I would also encourage you to view the Summit website for background material on the event: <https://sustainabledevelopment.un.org/post2015/summit>.

Please accept the assurances of my highest consideration.
