

The Janus Effect: Social Media in Peace Mediation

Sanjana Hattotuwa
ICT4Peace Foundation

youtube.com

YouTube NZ

Search

One Text Demo - Welcome - Groove

File Edit View Format Options Help Workspaces

Welcome

New Note

[Untitled]

Show List

1 of 1

Edit Delete

Introduction

The Sri Lanka One-Text Process space was designed to facilitate dialogue and stimulate the exchange of ideas based on a One-Text Process.

All content in this space is highly confidential. By participating in this space, members agree not to disseminate any information contained herein, electronically or by print.

Workspace Members

In Workspace

Sanjana Hattotuwa

Online

No members with this st...

Offline

No members with this st...

Did you know...

You can share this workspace with members. Type an email address or search name. Before it's added as a friend.

Invite to Workspace: More

Enter name or email

Go

Chat

0:21 / 15:51

6% 148

One Text Negotiations and Collaboration Platform in Sri Lanka

17 views

0 0 SHARE

Sanjana Hattotuwa
Published on 10 Jan 2018

ANALYTICS

EDIT VIDEO

Up next

AUTOPLAY

Virtual look at the caves trapping boys

CNN
3.5M views
New

She Thinks Eminem Is Her

How will radical transparency & pervasive technology impact closed door, high-level negotiations? What is the future of Chatham House Rule?

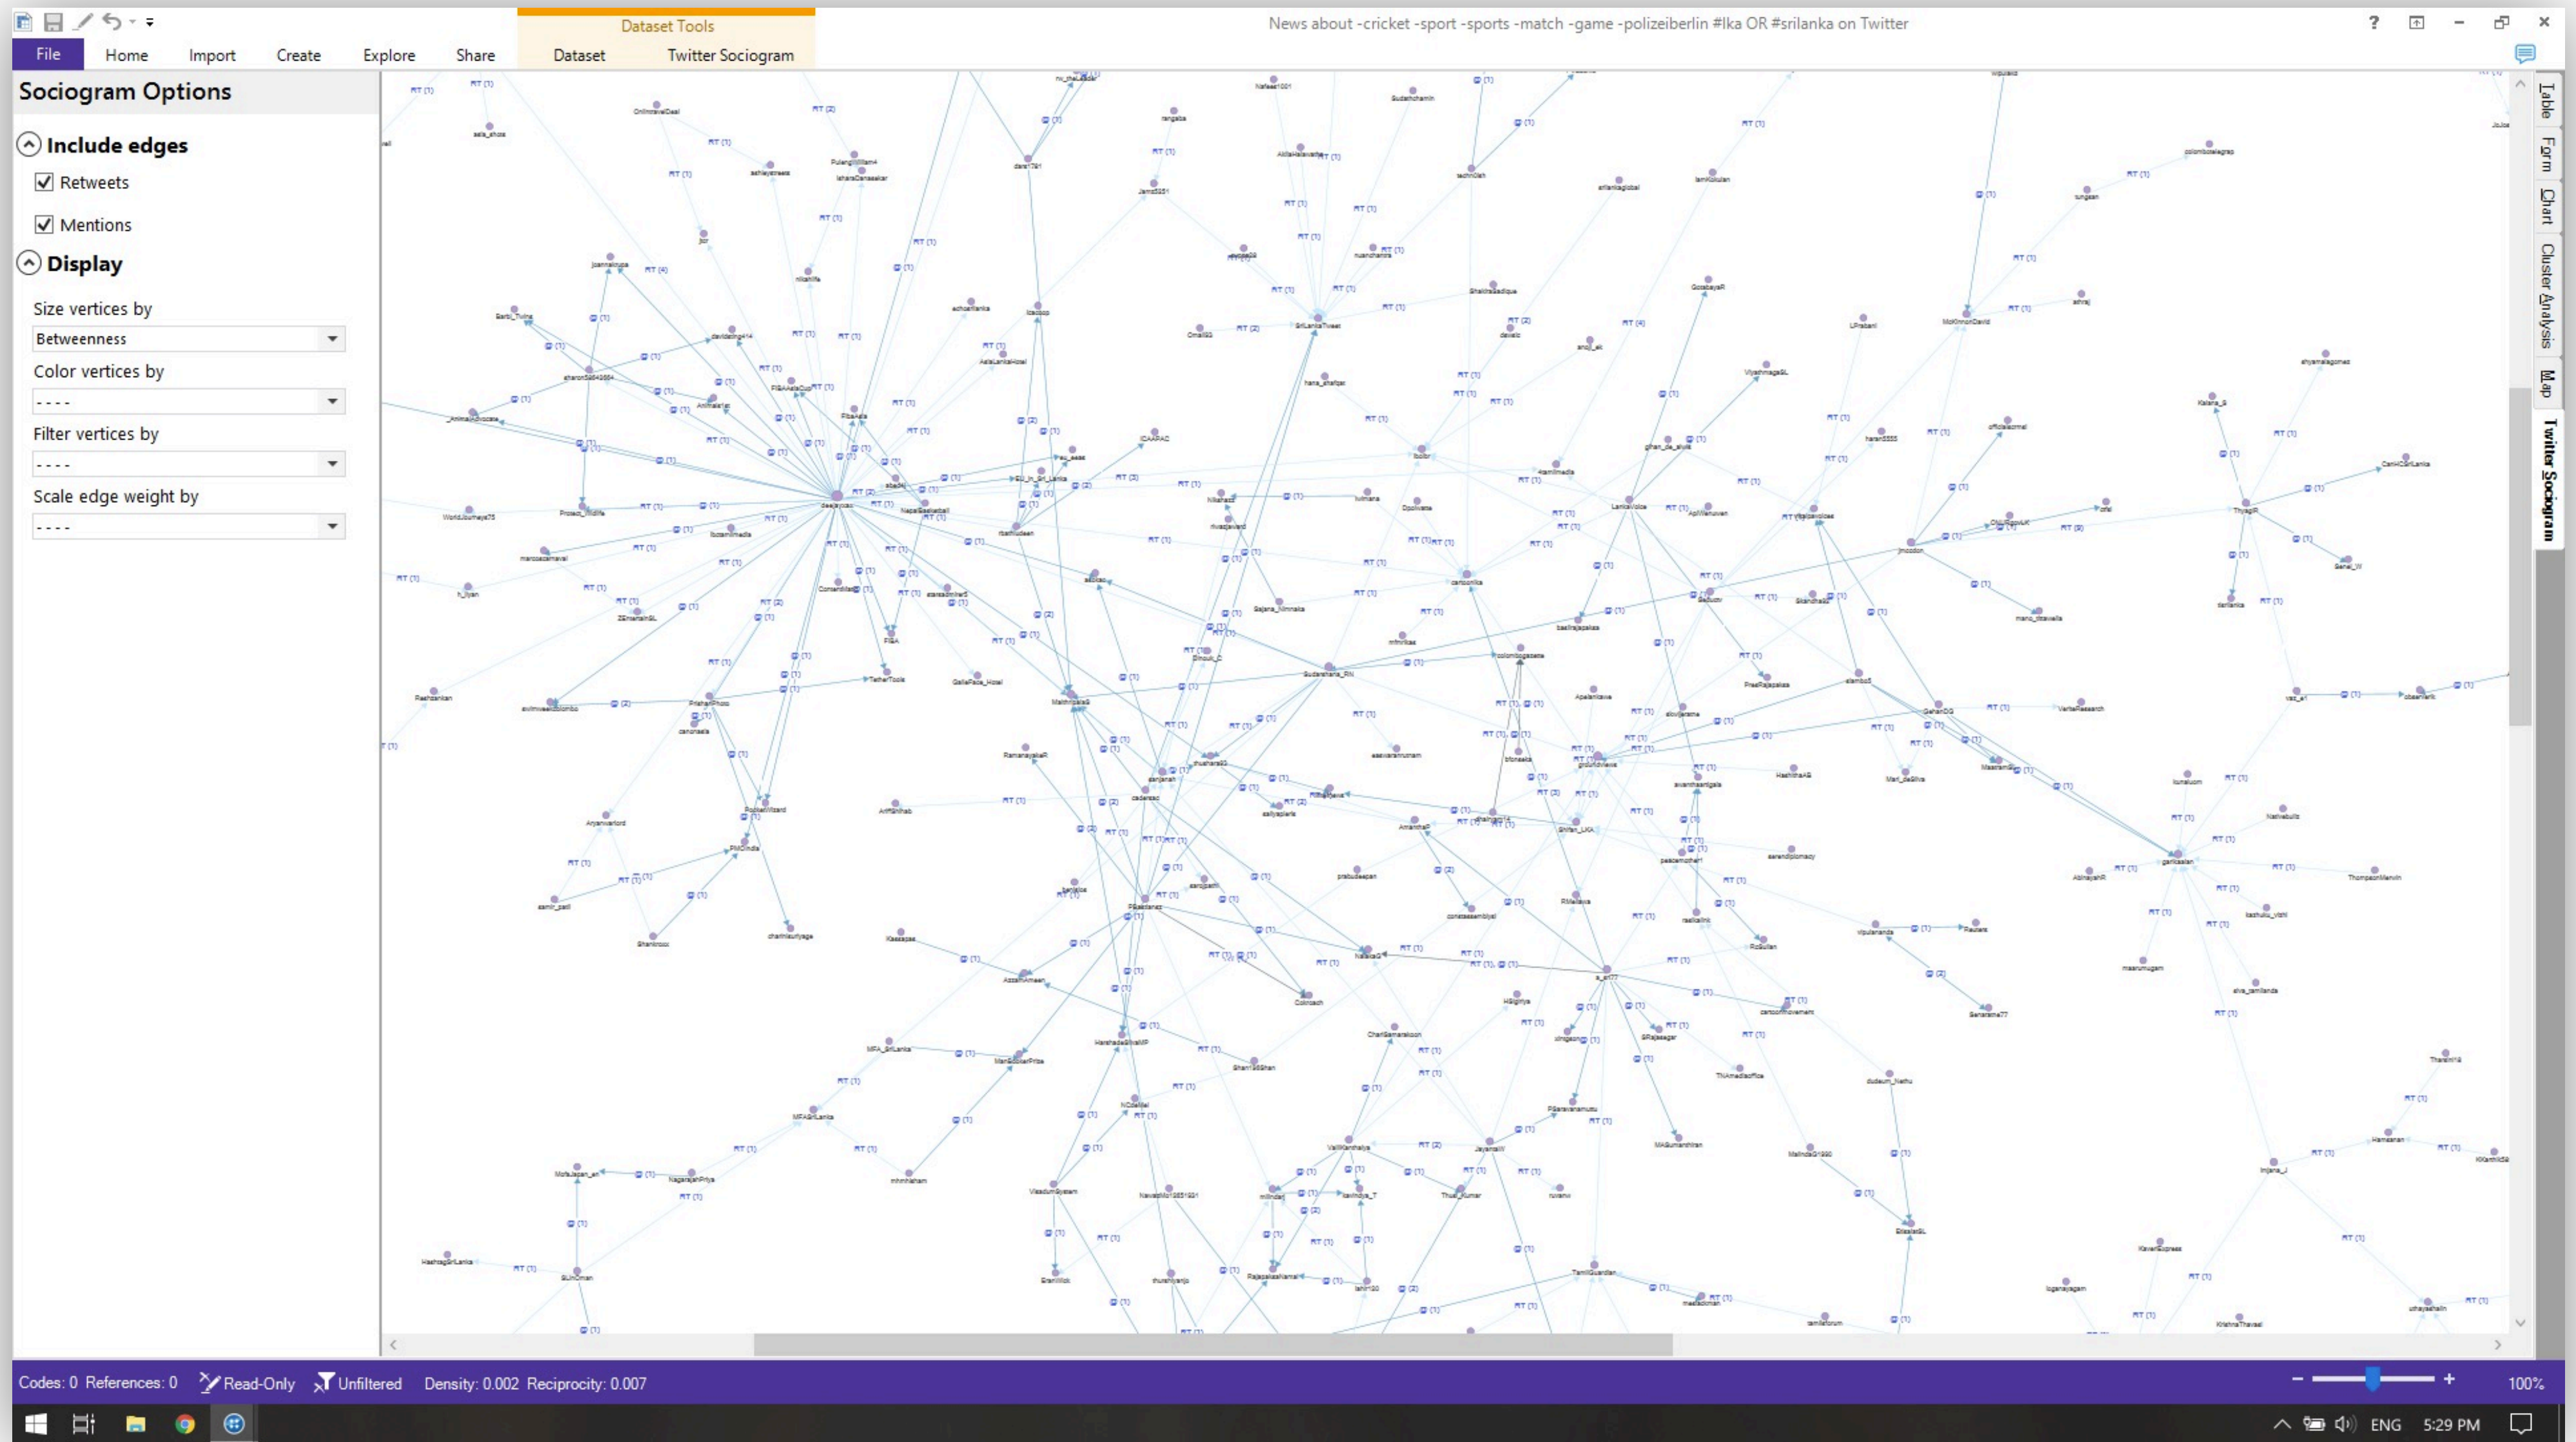

How will millions of lifestreams, freely accessible on the web, impact in real time negotiations around identity & resources? How will lifestreams from negotiations impact fragile societies?

justice & reconciliation

Beyond lib-dem, Judeo-Christian frameworks. What will it mean for digital natives & entrenchment of outcomes?

big data for context

Beyond the event driven, underlying drivers of peace & violent conflict

Signal vs. noise

How do recognise what's important?

Weaponisation of social media

You cannot embrace the positive without planning for the negative

Thank you

