

Schweizerische Eidgenossenschaft
Confédération suisse
Confederazione Svizzera
Confederaziun svizra

Federal Department of Foreign Affairs FDFA

Capacity Building Workshop on Cybersecurity Policy and Diplomacy for African Diplomatic Delegations in preparation of the UN OEWG and UN GGE Negotiations on Cybersecurity in New York

27 November 2019, 3 to 6 pm
United Nations Building, Conference Room 8
New York

AGENDA

15.00 – 15.15	Welcome and Opening remarks by Dr. Gillian Goh, ODA, the Representative of the African Union and Dr. Daniel Stauffacher, President and Founder ICT4Peace Foundation. Presentation of ODA online Cybersecurity training course: https://cyberdiplomacy.disarmamenteducation.org/home/
15.15 – 15.30	Introduction to Cybersecurity Matrix of national and international goals and measures of Cybersecurity, including regional and global processes. Speaker: Dr. Daniel Stauffacher, ICT4Peace Foundation
15.30 – 16.10	Introduction to the landscape of cyber-incidents and their cost: The role of Governments and private sector in prevention, mitigation and resilience, national and regional capacity for achieving cybersecurity, Q&A. Speaker: Dr. Sherif Hashem, SUNY University
16.10 – 16.20	Coffee break
16.20 – 17.10	International Law and Voluntary Non-Binding Norms to Achieve International Cybersecurity, Q&A. Speaker: Nele Achten, Exeter University and Harvard Law School
17.10 – 17.30	IHL and cyber operations during armed conflicts and the potential human cost of cyber operations, Q&A. Speaker: Véronique Christory, ICRC New York
17.30 – 17.55	Discussion on international processes and the engagement of African States. Moderated by: Dr. Gillian Goh, UN ODA New York
17.55 – 18.00	Conclusion and next steps. Speaker: Dr. Daniel Stauffacher, ICT4Peace Foundation